

There are some lovely animations and videos and some free resources on literacy shed that can inspire creative writing!

Tomorrow is National Writing Day. <https://firststory.org.uk/writeday/#resources>

Why not challenge yourself to write creatively? It doesn't have to be stories it could be...

Letters, recipes, menus, play scripts, instructions, secret messages, poems, a song, silly rhyming poems, jokes, clues to a treasure hunt, riddles, alternative endings to stories, descriptions, diaries...

If you want to share any pictures of your work we would love to see them on tapestry (please feel free to send via messenger too, please only include photos of writing itself on public page). 🖨️📱✍️
